

Author's Biodata

Padmono Wibowo has been a Permanent Lecturer at the Polytechnic of Correctional Sciences (POLTEKIP) since December 1, 2016. He completed his Master's Degree in Human Resources Development Program FISIP UI in 2006 and Doctoral Degree in Human Resources Management Program UNJ in 2011. He is an active writer of scientific papers and studies as well as a speaker. Among his works are "The Importance of Mitigation of the Risk of Overcrowding in Prisons and Detention Centers in Indonesia" in 2020, "Prison and Detention Facilities Preparedness in Indonesia for Preventing and Controlling Covid-19" in 2020, "Are the Deterrence effects could be effective for reducing corruption criminal action in Indonesia" in 2020. The author can be contacted through HP 08561057188, email: padmonowibowo@gmail.com.

Mulyani Rahayu is a lecturer at the Department of Correctional Management, Correctional Polytechnic. The Author actively teaches courses in Criminology, Penology and Management Prison including Need and Risk Assessment for The Prisoners. Correspondence with the author can be done through mrahayu.widayat@gmail.com.

Maki Zaenudin Subarkah is a lecturer at the Department of Correctional Management, Correctional Polytechnic. The author actively teaches courses on Applied Psychology in Prison and Human Resources Management. The author has written several books and journal articles about prison psychology and management including Prison Psychology and Correctional Institution in Covid-19. Correspondence with the author can be done through makizaenudin19@poltekip.ac.id

Ghaneisya Anggareksi Swandari Ridwan was born in Payakumbuh on February 1st, 2000. She graduated from the Polytechnic of Correctional Sciences (POLTEKIP) in 2021. The author is currently working at the Nusakambangan Open Penitentiary. She can be contacted through HP 089662530724, email: ghaneisyaangareksi@gmail.com

Duflitama Astesa completed her undergraduate education at the Faculty of Law at Muhammadiyah Malang University in 2022. As one of the best graduates of the Faculty of Law, she graduated with various achievements and experiences. She has the experience of being an assistant in a law faculty laboratory and has participated in several competitions in the field of moot court and legal writing. Her latest publication is "New Normal as an Opening Door to State Financial Stability through the Post-PSSB Tourism Sector", published by Jurnal Sosial dan Budaya Syar-i (Vol 8 No 5 ISSN: 2356-1459 or <https://journal.uinjkt.ac.id/index.php/salam/index> in 2021. The author has also done an internship at the Edan Law Advocate Malang in 2021. The author can be contacted via email at dastes08@gmail.com

Cekli Setya Pratiwi is an Assistant Professor at Faculty of Law at Muhammadiyah Malang University (UMM) and the Chairwoman of the Center for Civilization and Human Dignity Studies and the General Secretary of the Indonesian Association of Human Rights Lecturers (SEPAHAM Indonesia). The author earned the LL.M degree in the International and European Protection of Human Rights at School of Law, Utrecht University and holds a Master in Comparative Law from J.Reuben Clark Law School Brigham Young University – U.S.A. Currently, the author is a Ph.D. Candidate of the Institute for Human Rights and Peace Studies of Mahidol University, Thailand. Her recent publications are “Blasphemy law as Structural Violence”, published by Muslim World Journal of Human Rights, De Guyter (2021); “Rethinking the Constitutionality of the Flawed Indonesia’s Anti Blasphemy Law” published by Constitutional Review (2022). For further publications of the Author can be accessed through <https://orcid.org/0000-0003-3848-1113> or Scopus authorID=57221861823

Samuel Hamonangan Simanjuntak was born in Bagan Batu, October 10th, 1997.

He completed his undergraduate education in 2019 at the Bachelor of Law Study Program at the Faculty of Law, Riau University, with the undergraduate thesis entitled “Juridical Review of the Authority of the Prosecutor’s Commission of the Republic of Indonesia Based on Presidential Regulation Number 18 of 2011 on the Prosecutor’s Commission of the Republic of Indonesia”.

In 2020, he took a master’s degree and completed it in 2022 at the Master of Law Study Program, Faculty of Law, Diponegoro University, with a thesis entitled “Democratization of Regional Head Elections in Indonesia (Critical Study of National Simultaneous Voting Arrangements)”.

During his master’s degree, the author actively wrote for several accredited journals, such as Tadulako Review, Pancasila: Indonesian Journal, and several other journals.

The author can be contacted via email address samuelsimanjuntak17@gmail.com

Lita Tyesta ALW was born on September 26th, 1960. She completed her Bachelor’s, Master’s, and Doctoral education at the Faculty of Law, Diponegoro University. The author has been a permanent lecturer at the Faculty of Law, Diponegoro University since 1986 and a visiting lecturer at several universities. She is specialized in teaching constitutional law, with teaching focus: Constitutional Law, Legislation Design, Regional Autonomy Law, Capita Selecta of Constitutional law, Legal Design Laboratory, Environmental Law, Law and Environment Policy, Kapsel State, Regional Autonomy Law, Constitutional Court, Constitutional Law and Procedural Law of the Constitutional Court, Immigration and Citizenship Law, Pancasila and others.

Apart from teaching, the author is currently active in contributing to various national and international journals. In addition, until now, the author is also active as a consultant, such as Legal Assistance/ Advocacy as Expert Witness; Legal Consultant at the DPRD of Central Java, especially in relation to the preparation of Academic Drafts and Raperda; Legislative Legal Consultants in several agencies related to the Formation of Academic Drafts and Raperda at the Provincial and District/City; and others. Scopus Id: 57217824489, Sinta Id: 6052724.

The author can be contacted via email address lityestalista@yahoo.com.

Faizal Kurniawan completed his bachelor's degree in business law (S.H.) from Airlangga University Faculty of Law in 2005 and obtained his Master of Law (M.H.) from the same university. In 2011, he obtained his master of laws (LL.M.) in International Business Law from Utrecht University School of Law, the Netherlands. In 2019, he obtained a Doctoral Program in Law from Airlangga University.

Moch. Marsa Taufiqurrohman completed his undergraduate education at the Faculty of Law, University of Jember in 2021. The author is a law graduate with several achievements and experiences. The author is experienced as a research assistant by working in legal research. The author's research interests are in the fields of constitutional law, criminal law, regulation, and politics. Over the past few years, the author has presented papers at international conferences several times, and has contributed to national and international scientific journals. If you have any questions or discussions, the author can be contacted at email: mochmarsat@gmail.com; Web of Science ResearcherID: AFG-6259-2022; Google Scholar: <https://scholar.google.com/citations?user=gmySL-IAAAAJ&hl=en>; and ORCID ID: <https://orcid.org/0000-00002-5057-3611>.

Xavier Nugraha completed his undergraduate education at the Faculty of Law, University of Airlangga in 2019. The author is a law graduate with several achievements and experiences. The author is experienced as a research assistant by working in legal research. The author's research interests are in the fields of constitutional law, criminal law, and business law. Over the past few years, the author has presented papers at international conferences several times, and has contributed to national and international scientific journals. If you have any questions or discussions, the author can be contacted at Email: nugrahaxavier72@gmail.com

Vita Nurul Fathya completed her master's degree in strategic planning from University of Indonesia in 2007. The author is currently an assistant professor at Immigration Polytechnic of the Ministry of Law and Human Rights. She has research interest in public service marketing and bureaucracy reform. In addition, she has served in civil service for more than 20 years and has been assigned as public relations officer, legal document translator, planner, analyst, assessor, and lecturer. The author can be contacted at email: vitaFathya@gmail.com.

Asep Kurnia is currently the Head of Human Resources Development Agency of the Ministry of Law and Human Rights. The author earned a Doctoral degree from Universitas Negeri Jakarta. He has served the ministry for more than 30 years and was assigned to different senior official positions such as Expert Staff for Economy Affairs, Director for Immigration Cooperation, and Secretary for Directorate General of Immigration. During his service at the Ministry of Law and Human Rights, the author has shown high commitment to create the highest quality service in the area of human capital development and bureaucracy reform. He can be contacted via email at asepk234@gmail.com.

Sendee Theresia Suriadiningrat was born in Makassar on February 22 1994 and is currently working at a Recording Company. The author completed her bachelor's degree in Law at Faculty of Social and Political Science, Satya Negara Indonesia University. The author is interested in Intellectual Property Rights Law and this journal is the first article written as part of her thesis. The Author can be reached by email: tellsendee@gmail.com

Fitra Deni is currently a Lecturer in Law Study Program, Universitas Satya Negara Indonesia. The author actively teaches courses in Diplomacy, International Law, International Commercial Law, International Civil Law, Legal Research Methods, Guarantee Law, and Professional Legal Ethics. The author has written a book entitled "Model Penyelesaian Sengketa Bisnis Internasional Dalam Rangka Pembangunan Hukum Ekonomi Indonesia" (UNPAD Press, Bandung). The author has also written several articles in various journals, including "Peran ASEAN Tourism Forum Dalam Meningkatkan Pariwisata Indonesia" (International & Diplomacy) and "Children's Inheritance Rights to Mixed Marriage What is not Recorded in Perspective International Civil Law" (Indonesian Journal of Law and Policy Studies). The author is also active as a resource person and participant in national and international seminars, expert witness, and currently also serves as a member of the Honorary Council of the Indonesian Advocates Association (PERADI) DKI Jakarta. Correspondence with the author can be done via fitradeni@yahoo.com.

Asmadi Syam was born in Nagan Raya on December 10th 1990, is currently the Head of the Special Crime Investigation Sub-Section of the District Public Prosecutor Office of Banda Aceh. The author obtained a master's degree in Law (magna cum laude) from the University of Syiah Kuala Banda Aceh on April 1st 2022. Since being appointed as a prosecutor, the author is experienced in handling both general crime and special crime cases. The author has several publications on hukumonline.com, kliklegal.com, bahasan.id, kumparan.com, as well as a publication on the International Journal of Law Volume 8, Issue 1, 2022, Pages 185-190 entitled "Juridical Implication and Binding Authority of Dropping Charges Based on Restorative Justice". Contact information: asmadisyam10@gmail.com/ WA 0852 7740 3037

Al Hafizh Ibnu Qoyyim The author completed his bachelor's degree in International Relations at Faculty of Social and Political Science, Andalas University. The author works in Sabang Class II Checkpoint Immigration Office as the first expert immigration analyst (Analisis Keimigrasian Ahli Pertama). The author can be contacted via email at alhafizh93@gmail.com

Edward James Sinaga was born in Matapao on February 24th, 1972. He graduated from Mathematics undergraduate program with statistic concentration at Faculty of Mathematics and Natural Sciences, North Sumatera University in 1997. He then completed his Master's program at Master of Law program at Padjajaran University in 2012. Starting his career as a civil servant in Policy Studies and Development Center Ministry of Law and Human Rights Indonesia as a researcher, he is now an associate researcher in the Agency of Research and Development Ministry of Law and Human Rights focusing on education observations. Address Green Putra Mandiri Residence block D No. 1 Tanah Baru-Beji, Depok. HP. 082299502812. email: edwardjames88@ymail.com; edsmy88@gmail.com.

Anak Agung Gede Duwira Hadi Santosa was born in Gianyar on December 14th, 1977. The author completed his undergraduate education at the Faculty of Law, Udayana University (graduated in 1999), Masters in Business and State Law at the Faculty of Law, Gadjah Mada University (graduated in 2004), Doctorate at the Faculty of Law, Gadjah Mada University (graduated in 2019). The author is currently a lecturer at the Faculty of Law, Udayana University. He actively teaches courses in International Law, Private International Law, Public International Law, and International Tourism Business Law. In addition, the author has published various books and legal research journals. His last book was published in 2021 entitled “Tourism Law, Intellectual Property, and MSMEs” and several journals that have been published including the Idea of Alternative Bali Tourism Development Policies (Journal of Masters of Law Udayana Volume 9 Number 4 of 2021), The Employment Cluster of Omnibus Law: Embodiment the Concept of Nachtwakerstaat or Welfare State (Fiat Justitia, Jurnal Ilmu Hukum Volume 15 Nomor 2). The author can be contacted via email: agung_santosa@unud.ac.id /WhatsApp: 089699304557.

I Made Marta Wijaya was born in Selat on October 20th, 1997. He graduated from Faculty of Law at Udayana University, majoring in Business Law. A former vice of Academic Activity Asian Law Students' Association (ALSA) Udayana University and participated in several notable law competitions and was honored as the Second Winner of Constitutional Moot Court Competition VI Constitutional Court Trophy (2019). He was the Second Outstanding Student of Undergraduate Student Program, Udayana University 2019 and one of the Valedictorian Award Students Faculty of Law Udayana University Class of 2020. He is currently a Junior Associate in RAH (The House of Legal Experts) one of the notable legal firms in Denpasar, Bali.

Ni Luh Dewi Sundariwati was born in Denpasar, May 20, 2000. The author has completed her undergraduate education for 7 semesters at the Faculty of Law, Udayana University by taking specialization in Civil Law and writing her undergradute thesis entitled “Pengaturan Penggunaan Motif Ekspresi Budaya Tradisional Oleh Pihak Asing Untuk Kepentingan Komersial Dalam Perspektif Hak Cipta”. Her latest publication of scientific work entitled “Legalitas Eksekutorial Lembaga Perkreditan Desa Terhadap Hak Tanggungan Yang Berada Di Luar Wilayah Desa Adat” was issued in Jurnal Kerta Wicara Volume 9 Number 9 2020 . The author is currently a Lecturer at the Polytechnic of Correctional Sciences (POLTEKIP).

WRITING INSTRUCTIONS FOR JURNAL ILMIAH KEBIJAKAN HUKUM

Jurnal Ilmiah Kebijakan Hukum (JIKH) focuses on the field of Legal Policy. It is published 3 (three) times a year (March, July, November). JIKH welcomes the submission of scientific papers in the field of Law and Policy. The submitted manuscripts must be written based on research, studies, and legal reviews that have never been published in other media with the following requirements:

1. The editorial team receives scientific papers in the field of Law and Policy from within and outside the Center for Policy Studies and Development.
2. JIKH uses the peer review and editorial system. The editorial team and peer reviewer will be the examiner of the submitted manuscripts. As the examiner, the two have the right to reject manuscripts that are not qualified.

3. The paper can be in the form of:

- Research articles
- Academic articles
- Conceptual articles (freelance writing/short essays)

in the field of Law and Policy, both from within and outside the Ministry of Law and Human Rights

4. The articles are written in Indonesian or English, submitted in the form of an electronic file (e-mail) in MS Word Office program or in hard copy and accompanied by a Curriculum Vitae.
5. The articles should not be more than 25 regular pages (A4). It includes abstract images, tables and references. If an article has more than 25 regular pages (A4), the editor has the right to re-edit and consult with the author if it is necessary.
6. The composition of the research/academic article must include:

- Title

The title should be written briefly with a maximum of 14 words, size 13, bold, in Indonesian (capital letter [UPPERCASE] bold font style) and English (capital letter at the beginning of the word [Capitalize Each Word] italic bold font style).

The author's identity is typed under the title. The identity must include the author's name without a title, place of work, work unit address, as well as the author's phone number, fax, and email, written in bold font style.

- Abstract

Abstract provides a brief summary of the content. It includes background, research questions, objectives, methodology, discussion, conclusions, and suggestions without including pictures, tables, or references. Abstract should not exceed 200 words. It is written in Indonesian (regular font style) and English (italic font style).

Keywords represent the principal problem of the study and the main terms that underlie the implementation of the research. Keywords consist of minimum 3 words, maximum 5 words written in bold font style. Keywords are written in Indonesian (regular font style) and English (italic font style)

- Introduction (containing: background, research question, objectives and methodology)
- Research methodology (containing: Approach, Nature, Form, Sampling Techniques, Data Collection Techniques and Data Analysis Techniques)

- Discussion (theory and discussion based on the data)
- Closing (conclusions and suggestions)
- References

Each part of the manuscript (abstract, introduction, research methodology, discussion, and closing) is written in Arial 13 bold style.

7. The composition of legal review articles (freelance writing) must include:

- Title

- Abstract

The abstract is written the same way as writing a research/academic paper

- Introduction

Containing background, research questions, and objectives.

- Discussion

sub item, related to the discussed problem

- Closing (must answer the problem)

Containing Conclusions and Suggestions

- References

The writing composition of journal can be seen in the Manuscript Template at <http://ejournal.balitbangham.go.id/index.php/kebijakan>

8. The manuscripts are written on A4 portrait paper, with 1 space. It uses 11 pt Arial font with number on each page. Foreign words are written in italic font style. If there is already Indonesian language for a term, the foreign language of that term is written in brackets. Then, the Indonesian language of that term are used afterwards.

9. Writing citations from volume 10 number 1 Year 2016 onwards uses the footnote model. Footnote is inserted with Mendeley tools, Turabian 8th edition (full note) style using Arial 10 font.

A. Footnote is inserted with Mendeley tools, Turabian 8th edition (full note) using Arial 10 for the font.

B. Referencing

- The reference used should be the most recent edition.
- Reference list is arranged alphabetically;
- The use of references from the internet should use official sites that can be accounted for.
- The references are compiled by inserting them on Mendeley Tools. The main references are journal articles, and books (published in the last 5 years), excluding laws and regulations and other sources. Additional references are in the form of laws and regulations and other sources. Maximum page length is 2 pages. Paragraphs using 1 cm hanging indent format (Arial font 11, space 1).

10. The manuscripts must be submitted via <http://ejournal.balitbangham.go.id/index.php/kebijakan>